About Us

The accommodation benefits from being situated in the centre of the town. Being just a stones throw from the many friendly, shops restaurants and pubs. And just a short walk from the famous Castle, Dylan Thomas boat house and the many local historical tourist attractions.

Activities

Laugharne is an ideal base for walking and cycling holidays with an extensive network of costal paths. We have close contact with local stables, who offer excellent horse riding for both novice and experienced riders.

Local Area

Laugharne is situated on the Taf estuary just four miles from the famous Pendine Sands, a short distance away are the holiday resorts of Saunderfoot and Tenby and the beautiful scenery of Pembrokeshire coastline.
